

Crime Statistics in Colorado Springs

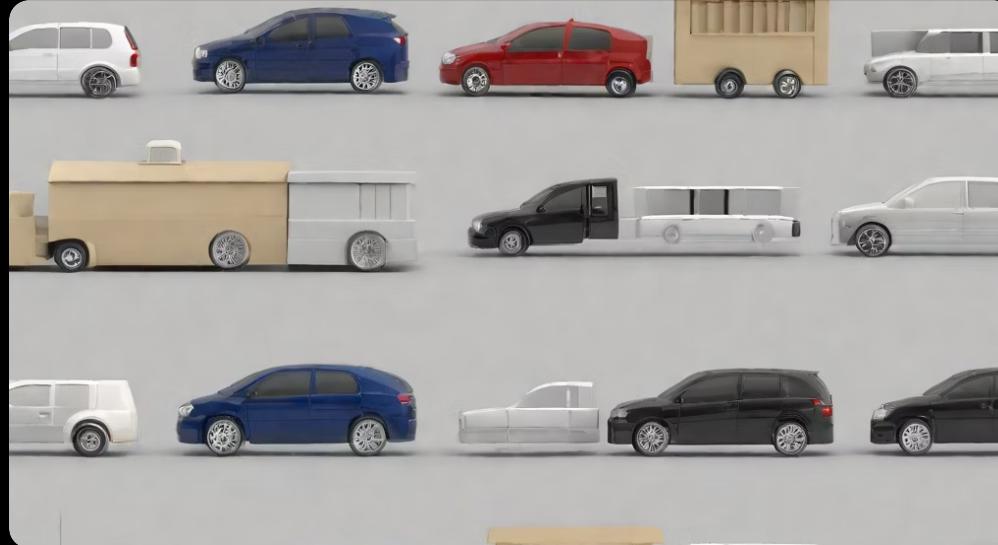

Overview of Crime Statistics

Trends in Crime Statistics

The crime statistics in Colorado Springs from 2016 to August 2023 show several key trends and patterns.

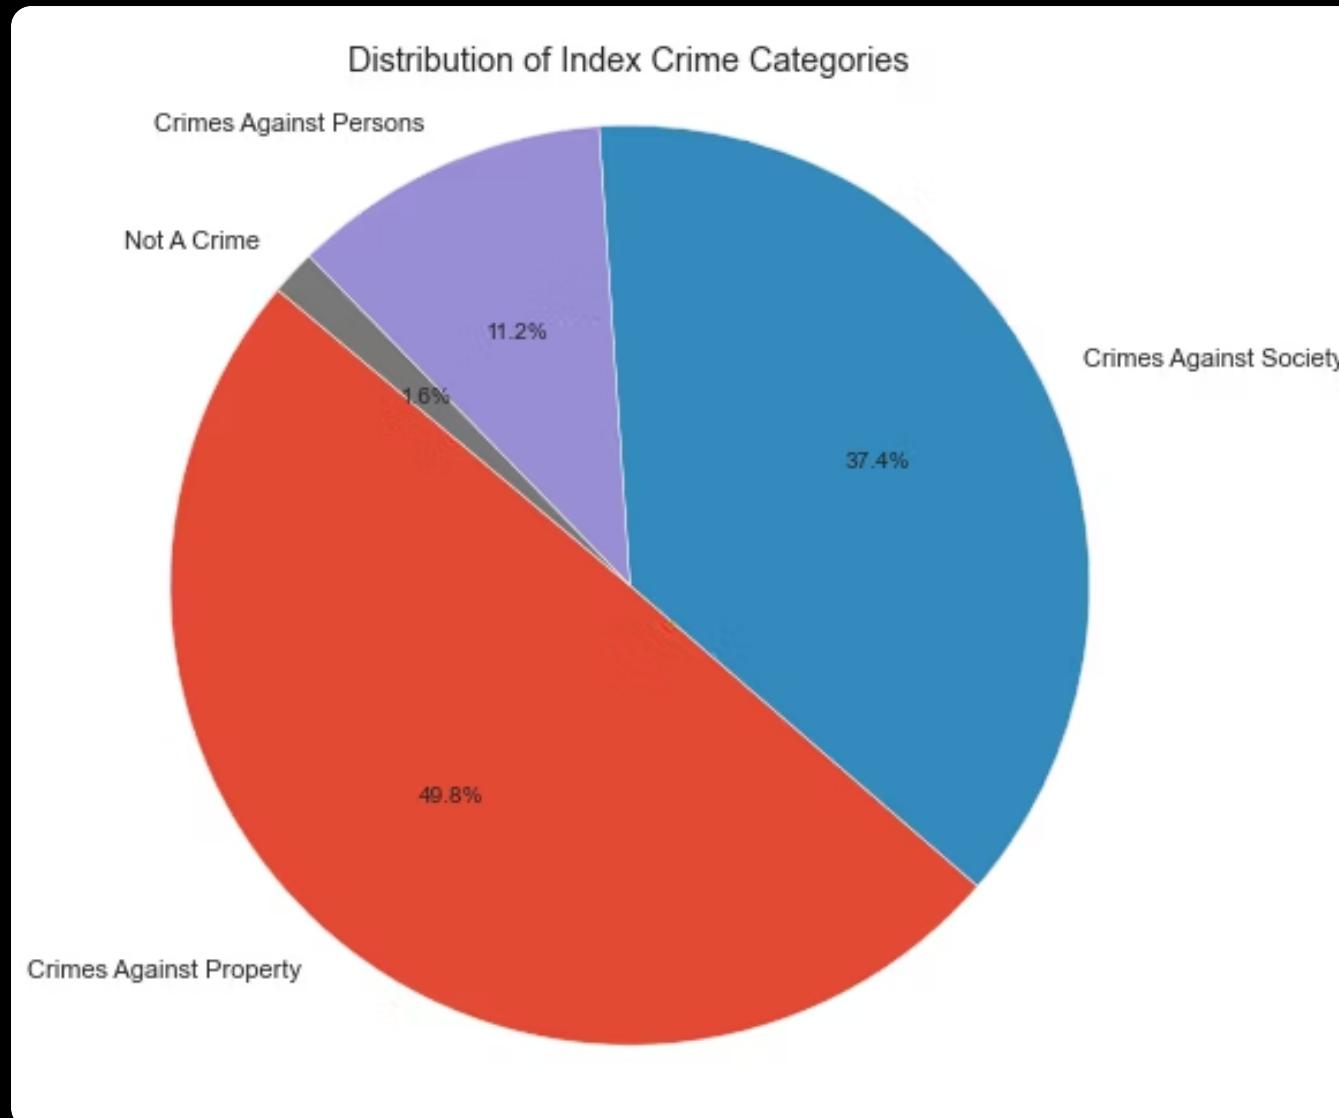

Overall Crime Rates

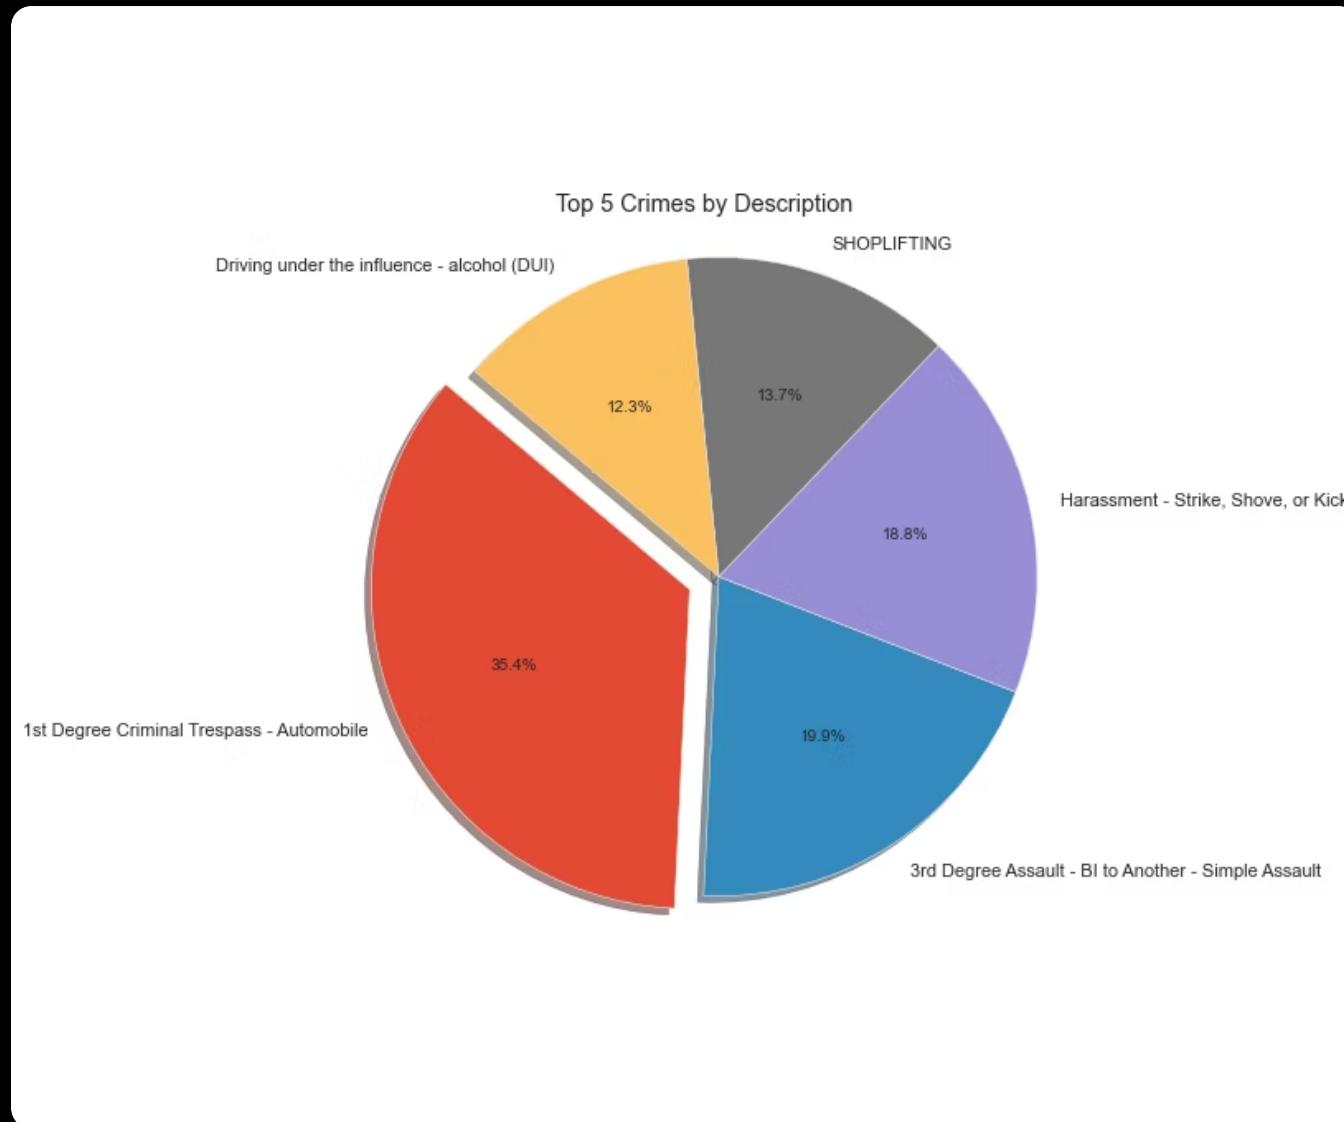

The overall crime rates in Colorado Springs have fluctuated over the years, with some years seeing an increase in crime and others experiencing a decrease.

- The statistics cover the period from 2016 to August 2023.

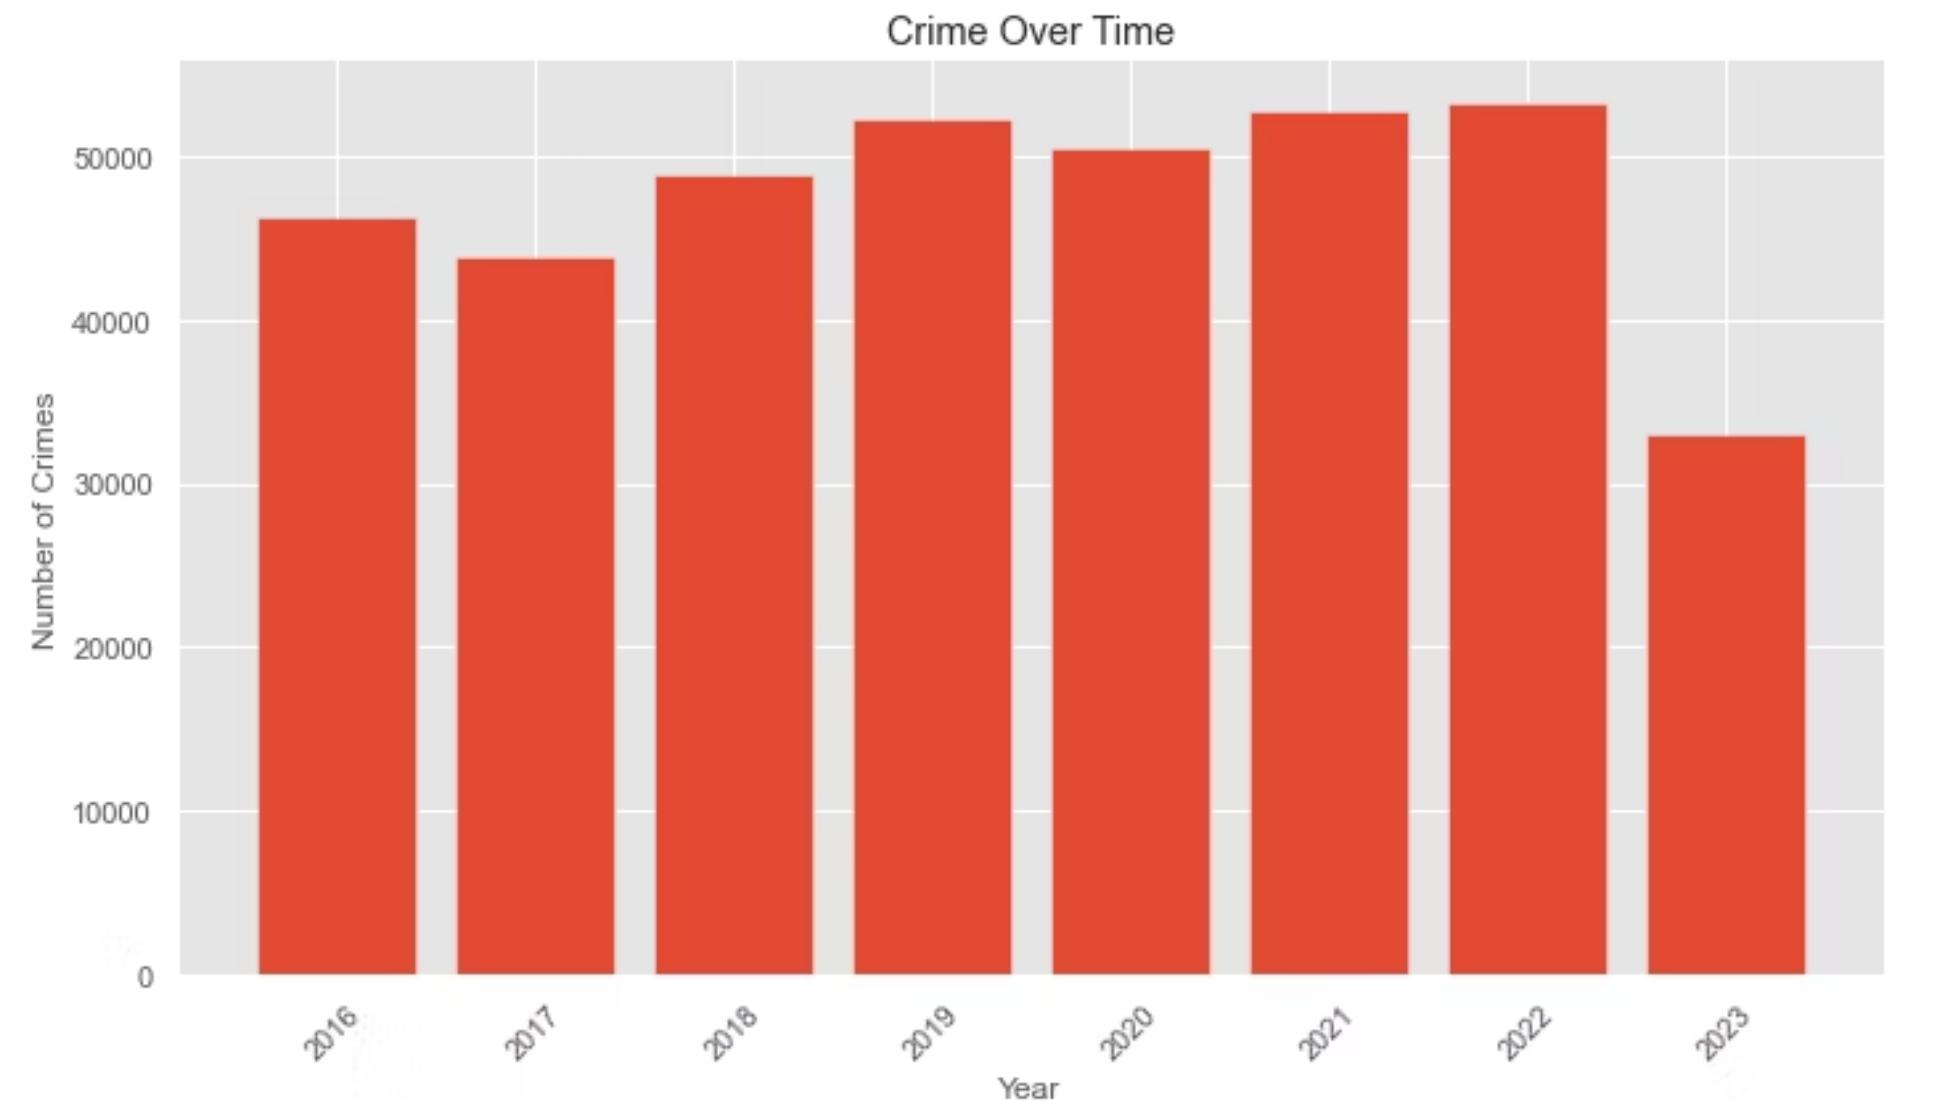

- The biggest category is Crimes Against Property.
- Crimes Against Society is the second largest category.

- Shoplifting may increase as stores stop reporting.
- COVID may contribute to automobile crimes.

Crime By Year

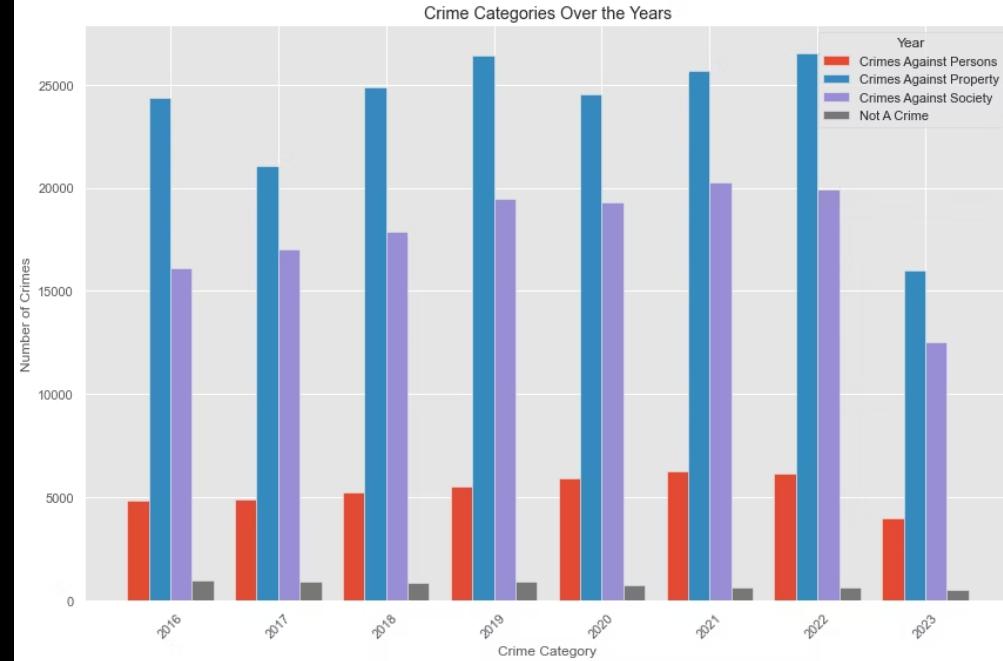

Crime By Year

- Overall trend shows a rise in crime
- 2023 totals are not complete
- Totals do not show unreported crimes

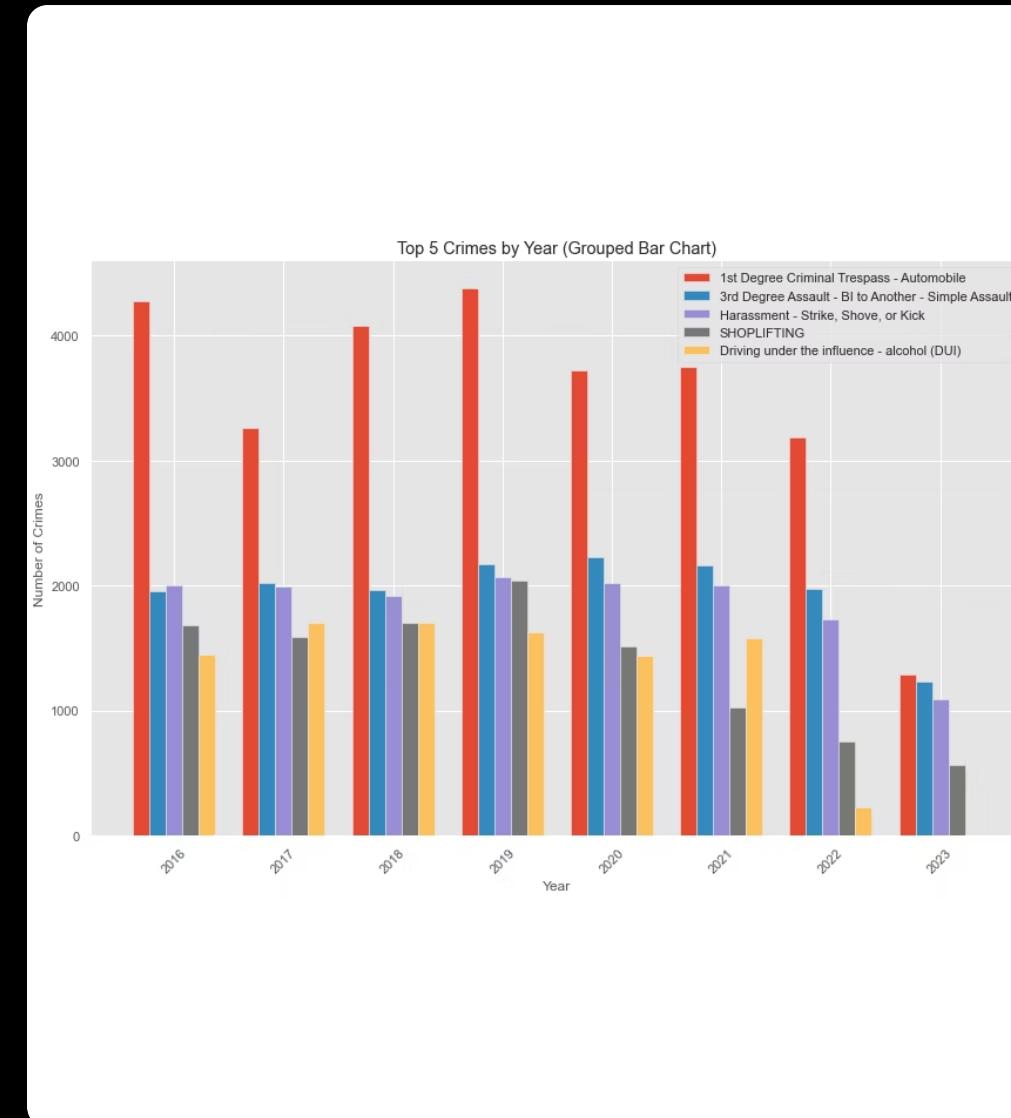

Crime Trends in 2020

- Crimes against property remain the most common crimes.
- Crimes have gone up in proportion

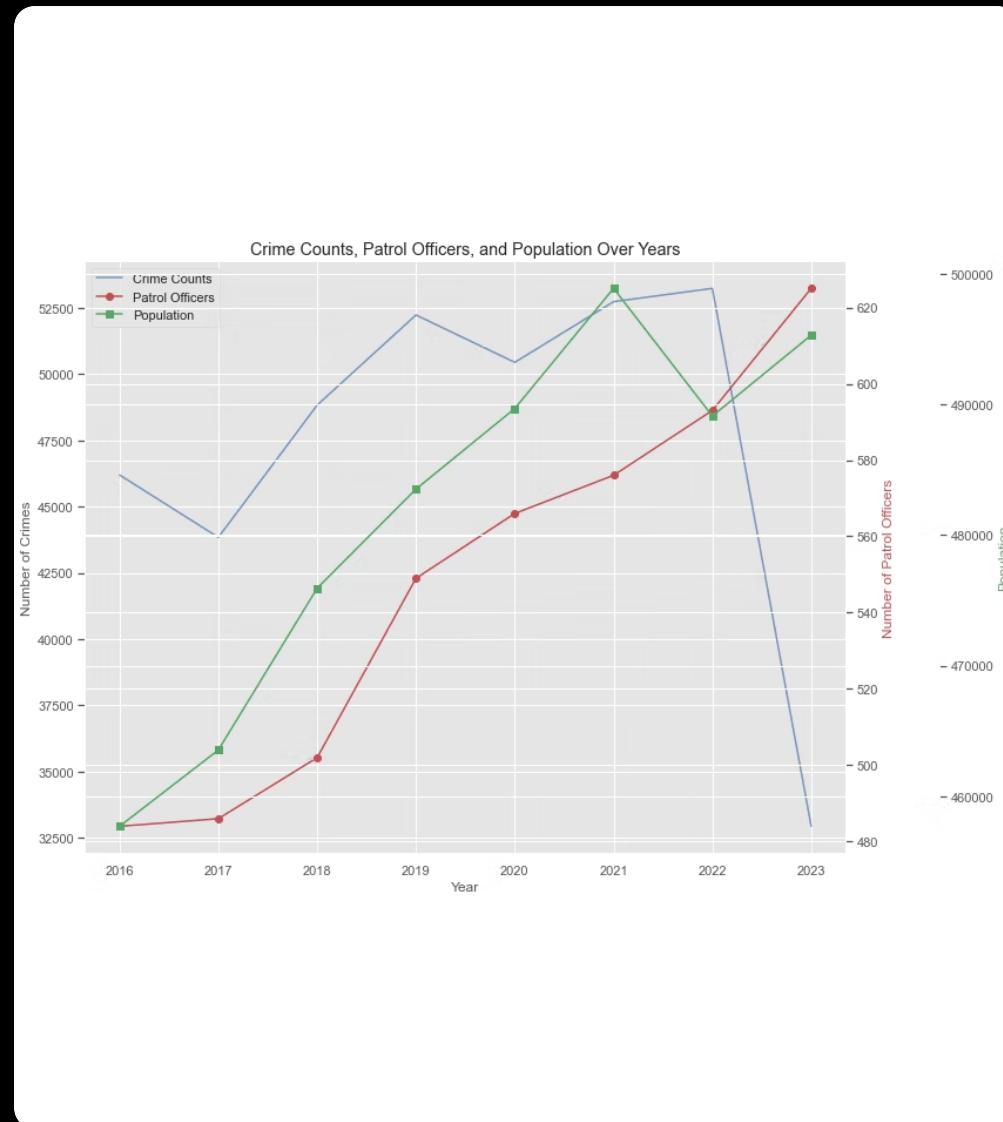

Top 5 Crimes by Year

- Automobile crimes rank highest among all crimes.
- There has been a decline in shoplifting from 2020 to 2022, but stores are underreporting it.
- There has been a noticeable decrease in DUI cases in 2022.

Crime, Population, and Officers

- The population keeps growing, and crime rates are increasing.
- The officer count is an estimation since these figures are confidential.
- This data was derived from the annual Colorado Springs budget reports.

Conclusion

- Crime has increased with the population of Colorado Springs
- 2023 totals are incomplete at this time

Further Research

- Economic factors may play a role in the increase of crime
 - Better statistics can lead to a more accurate model
 - Unreported crime does not show up in this study
-
- Data used from the CSPD Crime statistics website: <https://policedata.coloradosprings.gov/Crime/Crime-Level-Data/bc88-hemr/data>